

Maureen Kinsella has been practicing law in the area of No-Fault insurance litigation since 1999. In that time, she has skillfully represented numerous medical service providers and catastrophically injured individuals and their families in No-Fault insurance matters. She has prepared and succeeded in trials, arbitrations and appeals. Maureen is a Vice President of Miller & Tischler, P.C. and a member of its Management Committee.

Maureen is admitted to practice in Michigan and New York State; and in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan and the U.S. Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. Maureen has lectured in the area of No-Fault insurance; most recently having spoken at the Institute of Continuing Legal Education No-Fault Summit, the Michigan Association of Justice No-Fault Institute, the Brain Injury Association Legal Seminar, and the Michigan Brain Injury Provider Council Legal Boot Camp. She is active in the legal community with memberships in the American Inns of Court, Michigan Association of Justice, the Women's Bar Association and the Brain Injury Association of Michigan. She is a past committee member on the Michigan State Bar Civil Procedure and Courts Committee. Since 2014, Maureen has been honored as one of the Top Women Attorneys in Michigan as published in Hour Detroit. Maureen is honored to be a Board Member of the Michigan Brain Injury Provider Council.

Maureen hails from Buffalo, New York where she graduated cum laude from the State University of New York at Buffalo in 1996. She received her law degree from the University of Detroit in 1999. While at the University of Detroit, she was the Executive Director of the Moot Court Board, won oral advocacy competitions, competed on a national level in Moot Court, and was an American Inns of Court pupil.

Maureen is married to Mike and they have two active boys, Aidan and Chase. She loves to ski, read and is an avid lacrosse fan!
