

Milea M Vislosky has been representing medical service providers and the catastrophically injured in No-Fault insurance litigation since 2007. She graduated cum laude from Thomas M. Cooley Law School, where she served as both Research Editor and Managing Editor of the Thomas M. Cooley Journal of Practical and Clinical Law. She was admitted to the Michigan State Bar in 2006 and previously practiced in the areas of municipal law, criminal law, and probate/estate planning.

Before moving to Michigan and attending law school, she was a Probation Officer and Pretrial Services Coordinator for Indiana County in Pennsylvania. She is a member of the Michigan State Bar, Michigan Association for Justice, and Brain Injury Association of Michigan.

Milea has successfully litigated cases throughout Michigan, including the federal and appellate courts. She has presented at conferences and testified in front of the state legislature on various issues important to accident victims and their medical service providers. Milea is a Partner at Miller & Tischler, P.C. in Farmington Hills and a member of its Management Team.

Contact Milea: mvislosky@msapc.net

Download my Contact Information