

Wayne Miller is a graduate of the University of Michigan (1976) and Wayne State University School of Law (1979). Licensed to practice law in Michigan since 1980, Wayne has specialized in the legal issues relating to the victims of motor vehicle accidents. Wayne and the firm specialize in cases involving catastrophic injury, including the rights of the injured, their families, and their professional service providers. Wayne has served as an Adjunct Professor of Law at Wayne Law School, where he has taught the class in Michigan's no-fault auto insurance law since 1998. The textbook used in the three Michigan law schools that teach no-fault insurance is co-authored by Wayne. Wayne has been included in the "Best Lawyers in America" since 2005, and was named the "Most Respected Advocate" by the Michigan Defense Trial Counsel in 2007. Wayne has been honored by Michigan Lawyers Weekly as a 2015 "Leader in the Law".

Wayne is Chief Operating Officer and Chairman of the Board of Miller & Tischler, P.C. and a member of its Management Committee.
